HECKLE gained the lead leaving the chute, maneuvered nicely to the inside while edging clear, then drew off in the stretch under mild hand urging in a sharp debut. SAND AND SILVER, bumped at the start and forced out on FRANTIC PACE, raced in behind the leaders, moved three wide into the stretch and wasn't a threat to HECKLE while second best. FRANTIC PACE, bumped at the start by SAND AND SILVER, was briefly in front after the break, chased the winner three or four wide into the stretch and weakened. MANOSTEEL, a bit sluggish to begin and bumped by IMPROBABLE DREAM, followed the leaders four or five wide and failed to rally. BILLY DIXON drifted out at the start bumping SAND AND SILVER, then wasn't a serious threat. DOLLAR A DIP broke slowly in the air and never menaced. IMPROBABLE DREAM swerved in at the start bumping MANOSTEEL and was outrun. FORGONE CONCLUSION was through leaving the turn.
